I am unable to make it out the reason behind the post on Kamalhassan. May be I do not know what went wrong with Sri Kamalhassan of late.

You are learning karate at this age. It is great. Of course, there is no age limit for leaning anything new. Keep it up. Nice post.

Very nice serial. Did not feel boring anywhere while reading it. Purpose of such picnic is to sink the differences which might have happened during the course of office duty and also to expose our other side i.e. jovial side of our personality. This helps in team building which ultimately helps everyone to have cool atmosphere in office.

I also felt when you used the word ARUVAR reflecting the interest of the drama. But it is not so. Anyway it is a good effort that you have watched a drama and you are posting a review also. Very good analysis and it seems though you have gone with your friends, each and every scene has been meticulously enjoyed by you. Nice effort. Something different. Keep it up.

Even I wanted to know the meaning of DAGIDUDAMBAGA but I got it through Abba sir.

Thank you. This is really a new word from and the synonym for this may be - KOKKUMAKKU.

Travelogue is going on smoothly. But the punctuality is the great concern when you go as a team. We should punish one or two persons who are not punctual by leaving them behind. then you see all will be ready before the scheduled time.

You will get Abhirami even now; but your life will become like Guna Kamal ultimately. Is it OK?

Though I had been to Kodaikanal two times, I feel like going there once more after seeing your post. Writing a travelogue is a difficult matter and that too writing interestingly is an entirely difficult matter which seems to be very easy for you. Keep it up. I also feel like travelling with you virtually while reading this post.

Surprise No.5 Seeing this movie without running away from it half way through (of course, you were not allowed to do so).

Surprise No. 6. Your review of this movie - though it is not so interesting like the movie, I read it completely to offer my comments.

Surprise No.7 the feedback comments.

When I was new to Baroda, I told my room mates to take me to a Hindi movie. Instead, they took me to a Gujarati Movie (afterwards I came to know that it was done for the sake of ragging). After entering the cinema hall, I was told that I could not come out of the theatre half way through as the main gates remain closed. Even it was kept opened, I would not have got the courage to come out as at that time I was new to the city and language was a greatest problem. Gujarati movie was so horrible that I fired the room mates left and right still they apologized literally.

From this, I could guess, that your friends have settled their old score with you.

DEVAYANI - THEVAIYA NEE - This is your trademark punch in this review.
